the region's dynamic startup ecosystem thrives on government support, ambition, and vibrant cities, pushing the boundaries of innovation.

The Minister of Transport and Infocommunications emphasised Brunei Darussalam's commitment to fostering innovation, empowering youths, and building a robust digital economy that promotes growth, education, and sustainability.

The APICTA Awards were highlighted as a prestigious platform to celebrate creativity, resilience, and excellence in the ICT sector. With 280 entries from 15 member economies, the awards not only recognise achievements but also inspire continued innovation. The Minister stressed the importance of staying updated with technological trends and fostering collaboration to address rapid advancements in the digital era.

Ultimately, the APICTA Awards symbolise a collaborative effort to build a sustainable, inclusive, and interconnected future by encouraging idea exchange, knowledge sharing, and technological progress for the betterment of society.

Following the speech, His Royal Highness Crown Prince officially launched the awards and received a commemorative souvenir.

The event included a video presentation that showcased the awards' categories and activities, emphasising APICTA Awards as a platform for networking, innovation, and celebrating ICT advancements. His Royal Highness the Crown Prince also mingled with delegates, fostering collaboration and mutual appreciation.

The APICTA Awards, an annual competition recognising innovative digital solutions in the Asia Pacific region, is hosted by Brunei Darussalam for the second time, coinciding with the 20th Anniversary of the Brunei ICT Awards (BICTA). The 2024 event features 35 categories spanning Users, Community Services, Industry, Students, and Technology, highlighting Brunei's commitment to ICT development.

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 11th December – On 7th December, the Ministry of Transport and Infocommunications (MTIC) and the Department of Civil Aviation joined the global aviation community in celebrating International Civil Aviation Day. The theme, 'Safe Skies, Sustainable Future: Together for the Next 80 Years', underscores the importance of aviation in fostering safe, efficient global connectivity while addressing sustainability and innovation for future generations.

Brunei Darussalam, as a committed member of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), supports the global mission of advancing aviation safety, security, and environmental sustainability. Yang Berhormat Pengiran Dato Seri Setia Shamhary bin Pengiran Dato Paduka Haji Mustapha, Minister of Transport and Infocommunications emphasised the aviation sector's role in combating climate change through reduced emissions and sustainable practices supported by advanced technologies.

Key initiatives include workshops on aviation safety and security; security training; environmental initiatives; and navigation and operational safety. These measures aim to uphold international standards, foster passenger confidence, and drive sustainable growth in Brunei's air transport sector.

Empowering youths to build ASEAN Community

REPUBLIC OF THE UNION OF MYANMAR, 1st December – The 13th ASEAN Ministerial Meeting on Youth (AMMY XIII), themed 'Encouraging Youth's Contribution Towards a Cohesive Society in ASEAN', was chaired by His Excellency Minn Thein Zan, Union Minister for Sports and Youth Affairs of Republic of the Union of Myanmar, and attended by ASEAN Youth Ministers, representatives, and Deputy Secretary-General of ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community.

Held via video conference, the meeting aimed to foster collaboration and empower ASEAN youths in shaping the region's future, aligning with the post-2025 ASEAN Community development vision.

Yang Berhormat Dato Seri Setia Haji Awang Nazmi bin Haji Awang Mohamad, Minister of Culture, Youth and Sports, emphasised key priorities for empowering youth, including education as a foundation, global challenges, technology and innovation, and youth entrepreneurship.

The ASEAN Youth Ministers and ASEAN Plus Three ministers issued Joint Ministerial Statements for AMMY XIII and the 9th AMMY+3, reinforcing their commitment to empowering youth as key drivers of a cohesive and progressive ASEAN community.

Strengthening leadership of PWD for more sustainability

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 3rd December – The Government of His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan of Brunei Darussalam prioritises the welfare of Persons with Disabilities (PWD), offering various support initiatives. To date, 1,654 caregivers have received the Caregiver Allowance, while 6,156 PWD benefit from the Disability Allowance, with 825 also receiving the Old Age Pension.

Recognising the importance of skilled care, the Ministry of Culture, Youth and Sports (MCYS), alongside the Ministry of Health and Ministry of Education, plans to launch a Care Provider Course for caregivers, especially those assisting elderly PWD.

Efforts to foster inclusivity include early intervention programmes for children with disabilities, education allowances for special institutions, and the Plan of Action on Persons with Different Abilities 2020-2024, which focuses on education and economic empowerment. Employment opportunities for PWD are bolstered through initiatives like the Career Tour 2024 Recruitment Drive.

The International Day of PWD 2024 celebration, themed 'Amplifying the Leadership of Persons with Disabilities for an Inclusive and Sustainable Future', underscores the importance of PWD leadership and their role in national development. Events such as the Special Needs Resources Exhibition and Forum aim to provide parents and guardians with comprehensive information on PWD education and skills development.

The government calls for societal cooperation to create an inclusive environment that respects the rights and contributions of PWD, advocating for equal opportunities in education, employment, and community engagement.

Volunteers catalysts for creativity

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 5th December – "Volunteers play a dual role as community supporters and strategic partners in fostering inclusive national development, they strengthen social relationships, elevate living standards, drive positive change, and contribute to long-term sustainability," emphasised Yang Berhormat Dato Seri Setia Haji Awang Nazmi bin Haji Awang Mohamad, Minister of Culture, Youth and Sports, in his message for the International Volunteer Day 2024.

The Minister of Culture, Youth and Sports expressed pride in youth volunteers' active participation and initiatives by government agencies, non-governmental organisations, and the private sector.

The Minister highlighted the importance of intergenerational collaboration in building a harmonious and resilient community, where youth bring energy and creativity, and older generations offer valuable experience.

The Minister urged youths to innovate and expand volunteer efforts; organisations to foster a culture of volunteerism; and all to promote intergenerational and cross-cultural cooperation in volunteer activities.

Additionally, the Minister stressed enhancing regional collaboration through initiatives like the ASEAN Youth Volunteer Exchange to address shared challenges and exchange best practices.

On International Volunteer Day, the Minister celebrated volunteers as agents of change, crucial to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals and emphasised their role in tackling global issues such as climate change, inequality, and poverty by catalysing innovative solutions for societal progress.

Strengthen international cooperation to tackle health threats

Legislative Council (LegCo) members attending the Regional Conference for Parliaments of the Asia-Pacific Region on Global Health Security.

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 4th December - The Regional Conference for Parliaments of the Asia-Pacific Region on Global Health Security was held in Bangkok, Thailand, from 2nd to 3rd December, focusing on health security in the Asia-Pacific.

Jointly organised by the Parliament of Thailand, the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU), and the World Health Organization (WHO), it brought together over 90 participants, including parliamentarians, health experts, and international representatives.

His Excellency Wan Muhamad Noor Matha, President of the National Assembly and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, highlighted the need for cross-border solidarity and international cooperation to tackle growing health threats.

Discussions centred on Universal Health Coverage, the health impact of climate change, and the role of technological innovation in crisis response.

The conference addressed issues such as emergency health preparedness, regional cooperation, and policy adjustments for future challenges.

Brunei Darussalam was represented by Yang Berhormat Pehin Orang Kaya Johan Pahlawan Dato Seri Setia Awang Haji Adanan bin Begawan Pehin Siraja Khatib Dato Seri Setia Haji Mohd. Yusuf; Yang Berhormat Dayang Hajah Rosmawatty binti Haji Abdul Mumin; and Yang Berhormat Awang Haji Mohamad Danial, alias Tekpin bin Ya'akub, members of the Legislative Council (LegCo).

A delegation from the LegCo actively participated, reflecting its dedication to strengthening regional collaboration and promoting robust and inclusive health systems globally.

Creating an inclusive society

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 8th December – Brunei Darussalam, through its Ministry of Culture, Youth and Sports (MCYS), chaired the 20th ASEAN Senior Officials Meeting on Social Welfare and Development (SOMSWD) and related meetings from 4th to 6th December, via video conferencing. The theme was 'Strengthening Partnerships for Advancing the Rights and Welfare of Persons with Disabilities (PWD)'.

The 20th SOMSWD Meeting and the 19th SOMSWD+3 Meeting were chaired by Dayang Hajah Nor Ashikin binti Haji Johari, Permanent Secretary (Community) at MCYS. Brunei Darussalam, as SOMSWD Chair, aims to achieve milestones such as the Mid-Term and End-Term Reviews of the 2021-2025 SOMSWD Work Plan, drafting the 2026-2030 Work Plan, and developing the next ASEAN Enabling Masterplan.

ASEAN Member States reviewed the implementation of SOMSWD's regional framework and identified future cooperation areas in social welfare and development. The SOMSWD+3 Meeting highlighted collaboration with ASEAN Plus Three countries on social protection, ageing populations, care economies, and PWD inclusion.

The 19th GO-NGO Forum held on 4th December brought together over 100 participants, including SOMSWD focal points, NGOs, private sector representatives, and the ASEAN Disability Forum (ADF). The forum emphasised partnerships among stakeholders to promote the rights and welfare of PWD. The Permanent Secretary (Community) of MCYS underscored the need for dynamic, multi-sectoral collaboration to build a disability-inclusive society.

These events showcased Brunei's commitment to fostering partnerships and advancing PWD inclusion across ASEAN.

Increase capacity in addressing cross-border haze pollution

Permanent Secretary (Planning, Land Use and Environment) at the Ministry of Development, representing Brunei Darussalam at the Ministry of Development and senior officers of the Department of Environment, Parks and Recreation (JASTRe).

BANGKOK, KINGDOM OF THAILAND, 18th December - The 19th Meeting of the Conference of the Parties to the ASEAN Agreement on Transboundary Haze Pollution (COP-19) took place with the participation of ASEAN Member States (AMS) and representatives from various environmental and government sectors.

The meeting emphasised continued efforts to implement the ASEAN Agreement on Transboundary Haze Pollution (AATHP) and encouraged quicker action by remaining member states to sign the Establishment Agreement for the ASEAN Coordinating Centre on Transboundary Haze Pollution Control (ACC THPC) in Indonesia.

Key highlights from the meeting included the implementation of the Second Roadmap on ASEAN Cooperation towards Transboundary Haze Pollution Control (Haze-free Roadmap) 2023-2030 and the acknowledgment of the Second ASEAN Peatland Management Strategy (APMS), along with stronger monitoring frameworks to address the root causes of haze pollution.

The meeting welcomed the creation of the ASEAN Investment Framework Ad-Hoc Task Force to lead efforts towards sustainable land management.

ASEAN introduced new guidelines to improve the mapping and management of forest fires and reduce crop burning. This was supported by efforts to address the carbon/greenhouse gas neutrality pathway and sustainable agriculture.

Reports from the ASEAN Special Meteorological Centre (ASMC) noted that fire hotspots in the Mekong sub-region had decreased by 12.5 per cent compared to 2023, though transboundary haze remained a concern, especially during the dry season from December 2023 to May 2024.

La Niña conditions were expected to affect weather patterns, potentially increasing fire risks in early 2025.

Brunei Darussalam shared its experience with haze during March and urged AMS to improve national preparedness and response measures to mitigate haze pollution.

The Southeast Asia Fire Danger Rating System (SEA FDRS), aligned with ASMC warnings, was noted for its reliability, and further improvements to its accuracy were planned.

AMS were commended for their coordination in tackling land and forest fires. The meeting highlighted the importance of continuing vigilance and action during the upcoming dry season to prevent transboundary haze.

Address teacher education related issues, challenges

Representing the Religious Teachers University College of Seri Begawan (KUPU SB) at the meeting and conference were Rector of KUPU SB and KUPU SB Director of the Centre for Training and Competency Development.

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 17th December – The 18th Meeting of the Heads of the Association of Southeast Asian Teacher Education Network (AsTEN) and the 6th AsTEN Conference took place from 12th to 14th December, in Ho Chi Minh City. The event was hosted by the University of Social Sciences and Humanities, the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam.

The Religious Teachers University College of Seri Begawan (KUPU SB) was represented by Professor Madya Dr. Abdul Nasir bin Haji Abdul Rani, Rector of KUPU SB, and Dr. Kharhan bin Haji Jait, Director of the Centre for Training and Competency Development.

AsTEN is a network of teacher education institutions across ASEAN, focused on addressing challenges in teacher education programmes, practices, and policies. KUPU SB's involvement with AsTEN provides a platform for academic collaboration and research, benefiting both the university and Brunei Darussalam. KUPU SB is set to host the 19th AsTEN Heads Meeting and 7th AsTEN Conference next year.

KUPU SB appointed as Member of the APUCEN Supreme Council

Ra'ees of Religious Teachers University College of Seri Begawan (KUPU SB) leading the KUPU SB delegation at the Supreme Council Asia Pacific University-Community Engagement Network (APUCEN) Summit.

CHONGQING, PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA, 20th December – Religious Teachers University College of Seri Begawan (KUPU SB) has been selected as a member of the Supreme Council of the Asia Pacific University-Community Engagement Network (APUCEN) for the implementation of the APUCEN Strategic Plan 2025-2027.

This decision was made during the 5th APUCEN Summit Executive Meeting, held from 17th to 19th December in The People's Republic of China. KUPU SB's delegation was led by Professor Madya Dr. Abdul Nasir bin Haji Abdul Rani, Ra'ees of KUPU SB.

The summit, organised by Chongqing Perham Education, featured discussions on community engagement programmes from 2022-2024, along with a Supreme Council meeting.

KUPU SB's participation provided an opportunity for networking, knowledge exchange, and collaboration with regional and international universities, furthering its role as a religious teaching university on the global stage.

KUPU SB also presented two programmes: one on community engagement initiatives by the Fundamental Knowledge Centre, and another on enhancing mental well-being among students in Brunei Darussalam through a collaborative programme with the Ministry of Health.

APUCEN promotes a proactive, inclusive, and holistic culture of university-community engagement across the region.

CPI records decline in November 2024

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 23rd December - In November, the Consumer Price Index (CPI) registered a 0.5 per cent decrease compared to November 2023, driven by declines of 1.2 per cent in the food and non-alcoholic beverages and 0.3 per cent in the non-food index.

The decrease in the food and non-alcoholic beverages index was mainly attributed to lower chicken meat prices under the meat category (2.5 per cent), resulting from a reduction in chicken feed costs. Additionally, the vegetables category saw a decrease (4.6 per cent) driven by the fall in prices of onions and shallots from producing countries.

As for the non-food index, the decline was mainly influenced by lower prices of motor cars and air fares leading to a 1.1 per cent drop in the transport category. A 0.9 per cent decrease in the housing, water, electricity, gas and other fuels category, particularly, in the maintenance and repair of the dwellings, also contributed to this decline.

For a month-on-month comparison, the CPI in November increased by 0.3 per cent from October. This was driven by a 0.4 per cent rise in the non-food index, while the food and non-alcoholic beverages index registered a decline of 0.1 per cent.

The increase in the non-food index was mainly contributed to by price increases in clothing and footwear (5.7 per cent); and recreation and culture (1.1 per cent). As for the food and non-alcoholic beverages index, the decrease was mainly driven by the prices of fish and seafood (1.2 per cent); and meat (0.3 per cent).

The CPI is a measure of price changes of a basket of goods and services purchased by consumers in a specified period and compiled on a monthly basis.

The list of goods and services in the CPI is based on the average expenditure per household from the Household Expenditure Survey (HES).

GDP for Q3 increases by six per cent

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 23rd December - Brunei Darussalam's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) at constant prices grew at six per cent year-on-year in the third quarter (Q3) of 2024. This growth was driven by a 12.9 per cent expansion in the Oil and Gas Sector, while the Non-Oil and Gas Sector saw a growth of 0.3 per cent.

The growth of the Oil and Gas Sector was driven by higher production of crude oil, natural gas, and liquefied natural gas (LNG). The increase in crude oil and natural gas production was driven by new oil and gas wells, while the increase in LNG production was attributed to a higher gas supply.

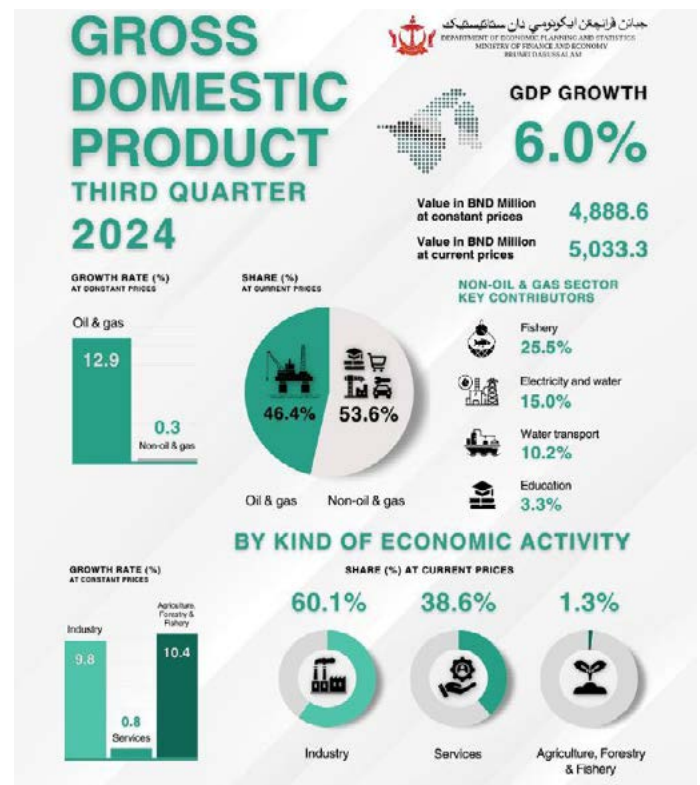

The Non-Oil and Gas Sector showed moderate growth in the Q3, supported by expansions in subsectors such as fishery (25.5 per cent), electricity and water (15.0 per cent), water transports (10.2 per cent), and education (3.3 per cent).

The growth in the fishery subsector was mainly driven by increased production in capture fisheries. Growth in the electricity and water subsector was supported by an increase in electricity production and expanded waste management activities. The expansion in the water transports subsector was linked to higher LNG exports. Meanwhile, the education subsector grew in tandem with increased activities in tertiary education.

In terms of GDP contribution by economic activity, the Industry Sector contributed 60.1 per cent, followed by the Services Sector at 38.6 per cent and the Agriculture, Forestry and Fishery Sector at 1.3 per cent.

Brunei Darussalam's GDP at current prices stood at $5.03 billion in Q3 2024, up from $4.98 billion in Q3 2023.

The Oil and Gas Sector accounted for 46.4 per cent, comprising oil and gas mining and manufacture of LNG. The Non-Oil and Gas Sector contributed 53.6 per cent of GDP, mainly comprising downstream activities such as the manufacture of petroleum and chemical products.

By the expenditure approach, the increase in GDP growth in Q3 2024 was primarily driven by a 6.2 per cent increase in household final consumption expenditure, followed by a 1.5 per cent rise in government final consumption. However, Gross Capital Formation contracted by 3.9 per cent and Exports of Goods and Services also declined by 12.5 per cent.

Gross Domestic Product (GDP) is a measure of the total value of goods and services produced in a particular period after deducting the cost of goods and services used up in the process of production.

Increase in trade balance in October 2024

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN, 24th December - The total trade for October was $1,682.1 million comprising exports valued at $1,063.2 million and imports amounting to $618.9 million.

The major contributors to the export value were mineral fuels accounting for 69.1 per cent, followed by chemicals at 27.8 per cent and machinery and transport equipment at 1.9 per cent.

The main export markets were: the People's Republic of China accounting for 25.5 per cent; followed by Japan and Australia at 19.7 per cent and 19.6 per cent respectively. The largest export commodities to these countries were mineral fuels and chemicals.

Meanwhile, imports in October were valued at $618.9 million. The three main import commodities were mineral fuels, accounting for 59.8 per cent, followed by machinery and transport equipment at 13.9 per cent, and food at 9.6 per cent.

The largest import partners were Malaysia accounting for 29.9 per cent, followed by Australia at 19.0 per cent and United Arab Emirates at 16.5 per cent. The main import commodities from these partners were mineral fuels, food as well as chemicals.

Compared to September, the trade balance in October rose by 30 per cent, driven by the decline in imports by 24.9 per cent.

The imports for end-use categories, were mainly consumed as intermediate goods processing accounting for 57.6 per cent, followed by capital goods for business operations at 38.1 per cent, and consumption goods for household use at 4.3 per cent.
