During the visit, the Deputy Minister paid a courtesy call to His Excellency Lee Young Geol, Vice Minister of National Defence of Republic of Korea. Both sides expressed satisfaction with the positive and cordial defence relations between Brunei Darussalam and Republic of Korea (ROK).

Both leaders strongly recommended establishing formal defence cooperation in the form of Memorandum of Understanding.

It is hoped that this will pave the way for cooperation especially in the field of science and technology, defence industry and exchange visits.

In the agenda of the meeting, both countries also discussed on the ASEAN Defence Ministers' Meeting (ADMM) and ADMM-Plus meeting. The Deputy Minister of Defence also extended an invitation to the ROK to attend the ADMM-Plus to be held in Brunei Darussalam in August 2013.

They also discussed on Brunei Darussalam's hosting the first ADMM-Plus Human Assistance and Disaster Relief Military Medicine (HADR/MM) Exercise that will be held in June 2013.

ROK assured of its support for Brunei Darussalam's ADMM chairmanship, and concurred to increasing the frequency of the ADMM-Plus Meeting from three years to two years, in line with the dynamic regional security situations.

The Deputy Minister also extended the invitation to the ROK's Ministry of National Defence and the country's defence industry for the 4th BRIDEX in 2013.

Both leaders continued their discussion during the working lunch hosted by His Excellency Lee Young Geol.

During the two-day visit, the Deputy Minister also visited the War Memorial of Korea in Yongsangu.

The Deputy Minister also met His Excellency Kim Tae Young, former Defence Minister of ROK, who was invited as the keynote speaker during the BRIDEX Conference held in Brunei Darussalam in 2011.

Brunei Darussalam established diplomatic relations with ROK in 1984 and the defence relations between the two countries have been positive, bilaterally and multilaterally, including exchange of visits (defence exhibition) and ship visits.

OIC committed empowering women

Yang Mulia Datin Paduka Dayang Hajah Adina binti Othman, Deputy Minister of Culture, Youth and Sports delivering her speech at the conference.

JAKARTA, REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA, December 6 – In line with the teachings and aspiration of Islam to uplift the status of women, the effort undertaken by the Organization of Islamic Conference (OIC) is relevant in strengthening the role of women in promoting and enhancing the development and participation of women in the development of ummah including in the field of economy.

This was said by Yang Mulia Datin Paduka Dayang Hajah Adina binti Othman, Deputy Minister of Culture, Youth and Sports at the 4th OIC Ministerial Conference on the role of women in development for OIC countries which was held December 4-6.

As one of the Islamic state, Brunei Darussalam welcomed the continuous efforts undertaken by OIC towards achieving the aspiration.

Thus, various efforts made by Brunei Darussalam to enhance the status of women whereby women in Brunei Darussalam have made progress in many fields.

The steps are in line with the OIC Plan of Action for the Advancement of Women (OPAAW).

Being a small population and close to half of the population are women, Brunei Darussalam realised the importance to use and develop all human resources to achieve growth and sustainable development.

This is because the involvement of women in the country's development is crucial, not only in the human rights and social justice but also to initiate towards the socio-economic development of the nation.

Therefore, a special committee on women issues that was established had been approved by the national action plan on women and family institution.

Among the issues included in the action plan were legal, policy, economy, education, health and work-life harmony.

With the theme, 'Strengthening the Participation and Role of Women in Economic Development in OIC Countries', was officiated by His Excellency Professor Dr. H.Boediono, Vice President of the Republic of Indonesia as representative of President of Republic of Indonesia, His Excellency Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono.

A total of 172 participants from 43 OIC countries attended the conference chaired by Her Excellency Linda Amalia Sari Gumelar, Minister of Women Empowerment and Child Protection of the Republic of Indonesia.

Though OPAAW has been agreed upon at the 2nd OIC meeting in 2008, but for Brunei Darussalam, several advancements and developments have been achieved by women in the country in the field of education, health, employment, participation in decision-making process and protection in any sorts of abuse and domestic violence.

In education, Yang Mulia Datin Paduka Dayang Hajah Adina said, the Mandatory Education Order 2007 required all children to go to school and the Mandatory Religious Education Order which requires children to attend religious school will take effect in January 2013.

In the tertiary education, more female student enrolled than male and according to Global Gender Gap report 2012, Brunei Darussalam has been ranked 11th globally
